As a by-product of the nations non-success in war, an educationalist now presides at the Board of Education. It may seem to most that so obvious a reform might have been had without so high a price, but we are a curious people. Meanwhile, the general satisfaction expressed at Dr. Fishers appointment must be regarded as a, good augury. It betokens an unexpectedly widespread interest in education. In some quarters the interest has in it the vague appealing cry of a last hope. The crisis is so acute that folks are consenting to part with their dearest prejudices. Calamity is a potent solvent. If this attitude can be maintained it is probable that reforms in plenty will be forthcoming. It is fashionable to revile the bureaucrat but in this case we believe that the bureaucrat has been laboriously preparing for a well ordered revolution. He has been waiting for a mandate from his lord and master, the man in the street, and now it would appear that the mandate has been given. What have the blind to gain from this new attitude to education? The government grant for elementary schools is good. What is needed there is not more money but more control. For technical instruction larger grants are required. It is illogical that the State subsidy should drop from; 3 to 3 3 s.when the pupil reaches the age of sixteen. There is another direction in which it may be legitimate to hope. At present permissive powers are given to local...
