The additional income from this source is used for promotion purposes. There is yearly a greater demand for the Review from libraries, colleges and schools. The book business has grown almost beyond the capacity of the editor s present staff. There are well-nigh daily requests from educators and school boards for bibliographies of physical education and hygiene and information concerning the best material on special phases of these subjects. In short, the home of the editor-secretary is becoming more and more a clearing house for in Physical Directors 44, Interested Individuals 15, Institutions 24. formation on these topics, in so much that I am credibly informed that he and his wife are likely to have to put up.a tent and, live in the yard. Largely through the interest and generosity of Mr. Herbert L. Pratt of New York City, Dr. McCurdy has been enabled to spend a part of the past year in work of a promotional nature, the increase of facilities for the training of teachers of physical education, the improvement of such training and the stimulation of public interest in physical education. The year has seen the inauguration of work by a number of committees of the association the reports of which are to be presented and discussed at this meeting. This work, if actively prosecuted, should be of great constructive value in increasing the extent and improving the quality of physical education in the United States. A committee of the College Directors...
